

Part and weight	Fail	Competent	Advanced
Pre-project paper (10%)	Fail	3 points	5 points
How developed is your assessment of the potential and the limitations of the project?	You demonstrate no or little understanding of these aspects.	You assess these aspects with simple judgements.	You assess these aspects with well-developed judgements.
Project (30%)	Fail	9 points	15 points
How well does the project serve its main purpose?	It is not clear that the project serves its purpose. It does not evaluate a method from the scientific literature The information used is incorrect.	The project serves its purpose to some extent. It does evaluate a method from the scientific literature. The information used is mostly correct.	The project serves its purpose well. It does evaluate a method from the scientific literature. The information used is correct.
How complex and varied is the project?	The project is too restricted. The method it evaluates or the evaluation is trivial.	The project evaluates one or a few relatively simple methods.	The methods studied in the project are complex and varied. The project contains original ideas and creative elements.
Presentation (20%)	Fail	6 points	10 points
How clear is the presentation about what your conclusions are and how you arrived at these conclusions?	The presentation does not make it clear what your conclusions are and how you arrived at these conclusions.	The presentation makes it reasonably clear what your conclusions are and how you arrived at these conclusions.	The presentation makes it clear what your conclusions are and how you arrived at these conclusions.
How well is the presentation structured?	The presentation does not follow a clear structure. It focuses on unimportant details. The slides are distracting.	The presentation is generally well-structured and coherent. It focuses on the main points of the project.	The presentation is well-structured and coherent. It provides a mix of main points and interesting details of the project.
Post-project paper (40%)	Fail	12 points	20 points
How developed is your assessment of the potential and the limitations of the project?	You demonstrate no or little understanding of these aspects.	You assess these aspects with simple judgements.	You assess these aspects with well-developed judgements.
How developed is your assessment of the usefulness of the chosen method?	You demonstrate no or little understanding of how useful the method is and/or do not base your judgements on your project.	You assess usefulness with simple judgements and make it reasonably clear how you arrived at these judgements.	You assess usefulness with well-developed judgements and make it clear how you arrived at these judgements.

Each category is assessed according to the criteria spelled out in this rubric and assigned the specified point score. For a pass grade, none of the categories must be assessed as a Fail. Points to grades 729A27: 30–43, G. 44–50, VG. Points to grades TDDE09: 30–36, 3. 37–43, 4. 44–50, 5.