

Program for the Conference on e-mancipatory Learning
 -Scientific Theory and Trade Union Visions-

5-7 December 2001
 Runö Folkhögskola, in the Archipelago of Stockholm, Sweden

5 December 2001
9:00-10:00	Coffee/registration
10:00-12:00	Opening session e-mancipatory learning – a foundation for the development of the welfare society Prof. Anders Flodström, President at the Royal Institute of Technology A trade union vision for the information society: Class struggle in cyberspace Ove Ivarsen, IT-ombudsman at the Swedish Trade Union Confederation On the move – the DLK pathway Sara Jägare, Project manager of the DLK project Chairperson Niklas Hallberg, Linköping University
12:00-13:30	Lunch
13:30-15:30	Session: Learning Learning in practice Prof. Roger Säljö, Göteborg University Learning in the union Prof. Staffan Larsson, Linköping University Susanne Köpsén, Linköping University Learning by doing Johan Arvidsson, Linköping University Chairperson Stellan Boozon, Linköping University
15:30-16:00	Coffee
16:00-18:00	Session: Learning, cont.
18.30 -	Dinner and evening activities
	Hostess: Berit Glemhorn, Linköping University

	6 December 2001
9:00-9:40	Plenary presentation From Drainage-net to Internet: Technical innovations and public health improvements Prof. Toomas Timpka, Linköping University Chairperson Vivian Vimarlund, Linköping University
9:40-10:00	Coffee
10:00-12:00	Session: System development Expansive development of systems of expertise Prof. Yrjö Engeström, the Academy of Finland and University of California, San Diego Developing information systems for large, non-profit organisations: Design and democracy in the trade union Sofie Pilemalm, Linköping University Chairperson Prof. Toomas Timpka, Linköping University
12:00-13:30	Lunch
13:30-15:30	Session: IT as Knowledge Support Collaborative learning in virtual environments Prof. Barbara Wasson, University of Bergen, Norway Knowledge support for shop steward's everyday needs Leni Ericson, Linköping University Magnus Irestig, Linköping University Chairperson Lise-Lotte Raunio, Linköping University
15:30-16:00	Coffee
16:00-18:00	Workshops: IT as knowledge support Chairpersons Ass.prof. Henrik Eriksson, Linköping University Stefan Lauffs, Runö Folkhögskola
19:30-	Conference dinner Hostess: Berit Glemhorn, Linköping University

7 December 2001
9:00-10:10	Session: Union implication Close Encounters? – European trade unions and e-learning Derek Stubbs, Senior Consultant in Trade Union ICT and ODL Projects Evolution or management in learning organisations Christer Marking, Director of the Swedish ICT-commission e-mancipatory Learning – a foundation for the development of the Swedish Trade Union Björn Arnoldhsson, Runö Folkhögskola Chairperson Thomas Hagnefur, the Swedish Trade Union Confederation
10:10-10:30	Coffee
10:30-11:20	Session: Union implication, cont.
11:30-12:30	Closing session
	Summarizing discuss panel Panel Participants Ove Ivarsen, the Swedish Trade Union Confederation Prof. Staffan Larsson, Linköping University Christer Marking, Director of the Swedish ICT-commission Derek Stubbs, Senior Consultant in Trade Union ICT and ODL Projects Prof. Barbara Wasson, University of Bergen, Norway Chairperson Stellan Boozon, Linköping University
12:30-14:00	Lunch